

January

Mark Wallinger, Yinka Shonibare and Ade Adekola create new works on the theme of the flag as a symbol of national unity in this show Pledge Allegiance to a Flag? Shonibare has created a Victorian Philanthropist's Parlour (detail pictured above) decorated with African batiks using motifs of black footballers in action ; Adekola's work measures viewers responses to projected images while Wallinger's contribution includes a sandcastle with a flag on top. The exhibition runs until 30 January at London Printworks Trust, Unit 7, Brighton House, Brighton Terrace, Brixton, London SW9, telephone (0171) 738 7841.